

JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY FEDERAL FUNDING PLANNING GUIDE

The week of 01/09/23

RULO STRATEGIES LLC

INTRODUCTION

Purpose of Document:

This document provides information on current federal funding opportunities. It is intended that the resource will highlight key information to help jurisdictions make decisions about whether to pursue these funding opportunities. Please note that the solicitation or notice of funding that is linked serves as the official guidance on how to apply for the funding, required and allowable expenses, and deadlines. If a funding opportunity looks relevant to the work you are planning for, please read through each solicitation/notice of funding closely to respond to all requirements. Most of the Department of Justice funding opportunities require a two-step application submission process, each with its own deadline. All deadlines are noted in the descriptions.

Audience:

The grant programs listed in this document allow for a variety of eligible applicants, including state, local and tribal government entities and nonprofit organizations. Eligibility and target audience varies by program, so please read through the eligibility information. If your jurisdiction or organization is not eligible to submit the application, many programs allow and/or encourage partnerships through sub-grants and contracts with eligible applicants.

Other Relevant Resources:

While the document links to the most relevant federal funding opportunities for rural jurisdictions and stakeholders, there may be other information available from federal partners to support the process of applying for funding. Please be sure to sign up for grant alerts and access these federal funding pages often. To learn more:

Connecting with Researchers:

The Justice Community Opioid Innovation Network (JCOIN) has developed a resource for local jurisdictions to find and connect with researchers called CONNECT. CONNECT is a researcher and practitioner collaboration and discovery tool and aims to help facilitate multidisciplinary research and programmatic collaboration across the health and justice fields. You can browse or search information on researchers, practitioners, publications, and organizations.

Training and Technical Assistance:

If your community is not ready to apply for funding but still needs assistance, keep in mind that many federal agencies offer free training and technical assistance to connect you with subject matter experts to provide training or technical expertise on certain topics. You can request assistance through the following training and technical assistance centers available through the federal government:

- Bureau of Justice Assistance National Training and Technical Assistance Center
- Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention National Training and Technical Assistance Center
- Office for Victims of Crime Training and Technical Assistance Center

Cost Sharing/Match Required? No

Complete details are available at Grants to Expand Substance Use Disorder Treatment Capacity in Adult and Family Treatment Drug Courts.

Description:

The purpose of this program is to expand substance use disorder (SUD) treatment and recovery support services in existing drug courts. The program recognizes the need for treatment instead of incarceration for individuals with SUDs. These awards provide a continuum of care, including prevention, harm reduction, treatment, and recovery services, for individuals with SUD involved with the courts.

What can be funded?

- Funds must be used to expand access to treatment services for SUD and/or co-occurring substance use and mental disorders in existing Adult Drug Treatment Courts (ATDCs), Family Treatment Drug Courts (FTDCs), and Adult Tribal Healing to Wellness Courts. This program is not intended to provide start-up funds to create new ATDCs, Adult Tribal Healing to Wellness Courts, or FTDCs. Eligible drug courts must be operational on or before April 1, 2023.
- Award recipients must use SAMHSA's funds to primarily support direct services.
- Refer to pages 8-13 of the solicitation for additional allowable activities.
